-For Senior High campers driving themselves, please bring your keys to registration. They will be kept in the office and returned at the end of the week.

Electronics – Leave your iPods, MP3 Players, cell phones etc. at home! If they are found at camp, they will be kept in the office until Friday departure. Expensive clothes, jewelry or watches.

Platform shoes, pets, food, candy or pop, chemicals or tobacco, weapons (including pocket knives) or fireworks.

Dress Code

We have a simple dress code for both females and males attending camp. Dress modestly. We ask that campers and staff alike consider their clothing and what messages their attire choices send. It is our goal to represent Christ in every area, including in the way we dress. Please leave items with inappropriate language or images at home. No bikinis or speedos please. All undergarments must be fully covered. We realize that our current culture does not make this easy, and we thank you for your efforts in seeking modest choices. Other than that, our hope is that the staff will model this policy and love the campers for who they are.

Thursday Night Dinner

Covenant Park continues a long tradition of “dressing up” for Thursday night dinner during Sr. High 2 camp. Note: Not all the staff or all the campers do dress up, but many will. It could be simple or complex as you desire.

Trailblazer campers enjoy dressing up in silly or mismatched outfits and costumes for Wednesday night dinner. Again not all campers and staff choose to participate, but many do.

Junior High campers dress up using the camp theme for the year. This year the theme is “rooted”. Think lumber jack/jill, flannel ect. This is the same for Junior/Senior high combined camp.

Recreational Activities

There are a variety of rigorous indoor and outdoor activities under trained supervision, including traditional games, waterfront and nature hiking. Individual camper physical restrictions should be carefully noted to the camp nurse.

Canteen Information:

The canteen and store are open for campers usually twice daily. Here are some prices to help you plan for your budgeting:

Pop-Candy-ranging from $.25-$2.00 Clothing and other camp merchandise ranging from $1.50-$40.00

*Note for Day and Mini campers canteen is included in their camp tuition fee. The store will be open for these age groups during drop off and pick up times.

Mission Project

Each year campers make contributions through the Covenant Park canteens to support various mission projects. They can use money from their canteen account to contribute towards these causes.

*Note for Mini and Day campers there is not a missions project.

Sending Mail Campers love to get mail! Please send mail to:

Covenant Park Bible Camp

Attn: (Camper's name)

3402 Covenant Park Rd

Mahtowa, MN 55707

You can also send letters via email at mail@covenantpark.org. Be sure to include the name of your camper in the subject line.

Insurance

The camp carries accident/injury insurance. This insurance is a modest secondary insurer policy, which will cover expenses that an individual's insurance company does not cover if the injury happens at camp. If an individual is not insured, the camp insurance will cover some medical costs. Please notify the camp office immediately if you have claim questions.

Scholarships

Covenant Park does have financial aid available. This opportunity is made possible through individual and congregational support. Many churches are donating an amount toward the camp fee, so please check with your church as to the exact amount. If you are in need of further assistance, scholarship applications are available online at www.covenantpark.org, or you may call our office at (218)389-6398 to request one. We ask that you also include the $75 deposit fee for holding your child's place in camp registrations.

Sincerely,

Sheila Butterfield

Office Manager
