2. In what ways are you active in your church?

3. Do you have any physical (or other) limitations we should know about?

4. Why do you want to volunteer at Covenant Park?

5. What is your faith story?

6. How comfortable are you in leading a camper to Christ if the opportunity arose (please answer if desiring a position that works directly with campers)?

I hereby certify that all of the information that I have provided to Covenant Park Bible Camp in this application or otherwise is true. I give permission to Covenant Park and its agents to attempt to verify the information that I have provided by questioning my references, employers, schools, friends, family members, and anyone else who is contacted by Covenant Park or its agents to release all information that they possess about me to Covenant Park or its agents. I understand that if, in the sole opinion of Covenant Park, I have provided false, misleading, or incomplete information, my application may be rejected or, if it has already been accepted, I may be terminated immediately.

Note: "Affirmative Action" legislation gives you the right, if you should so choose, to omit certain categories in this application, i.e. those questions pertaining to date of birth, sex, marital status, physical limitations, etc. All help us in the placement process but cannot be required.

Permission to Treat: In the event that I am unable to communicate my desires or my spouse or other emergency contact cannot be reached in an emergency, I hereby give permission to the designated camp administrator to obtain emergency transportation as needed, and to the designated physician to secure proper treatment, hospitalize, and to order injection/anesthesia, and/or surgery. Your signature below also give CPBC the right to include your photograph or video image in comp promotional materials.

I agree with the Covenant Statements of Faith, if not please explain on another sheet of paper.

Evangelical Covenant Church of America Statement of Belief:

1. We believe that the Church of Christ is apostolic. We confess the historic faith of the apostles. We believe in Jesus Christ the Son of God, our Lord.
2. We believe we are part of the universal church of Jesus Christ which has been one from the days of His apostles up to the present. As part of that universal church, historically our roots are in mainstream sixteenth-century Protestant thought.
3. We believe in justification by grace alone through faith alone.
4. We believe that the Church, being singular and universal is a fellowship of persons who have experienced the reality of grace through faith. It is characterized by mutual participation in and sharing of the new life in Christ. Membership is by confession of personal faith in Christ. No one can be excluded on the basis of class, race, education, wealth or prestige. Within the church there will be diversity in creedal details. The one thing that is needed is that one be "born anew to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead" (1 Peter 1:3).
5. We believe in the need for personal faith in Jesus Christ. In fact, we exist to assist adults and children in coming to personal faith and to enhance its

- growth. Jesus said, "Unless one is born anew, he cannot see the kingdom of God" (John 3:3). He also said, "If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free" (John 8:31-32).
6. We believe that freedom in Christ is what delivers us from the power of sin and moves us by his grace into a whole new experience of obedience and life. This freedom allows for differences of opinion in matters of interpretation, doctrine, and practice within the context of biblical guidelines and historical Christianity.
 7. Attesting to personal faith in Christ, we believe in the centrality of the Scriptures as God's revelation of Himself to the human race. We believe the Old and New Testaments to be the authoritative Word of God and the only perfect rule for faith, doctrine, and conduct.
 8. We believe the Holy Spirit, who with the Father, and the Son call the Church into being, empowers its witness, guides its mission, and supplies the needed gifts to exalt Christ to the Church and its members.

9. These statements represent the foundations of faith of Covenant Park Bible Camp. They generate our desire to help people grow in grace and knowledge of God, awaiting that day when "the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ shall reign for ever and ever"
